Hendersons Give Dance in Honor of Miss Taft.

COTILLION IS A UNIQUE ONE

Mrs. Sherman Leaves for Utica to Spend the Holidays—Mrs. Arthur Murray Hostess at Luncheon in Honor of Miss Carol Newberry. Miss L. Robertson Makes Debut.

Miss Taft was the guest of honor at a cotillion last night, given by former Senator and Mrs. John B. Henderson, at their home, Boundary Castle. There were eighty dancers, and the cotillion began at 9:30, which is distinctly a new order of things in Washington society, where the guests are asked for dancing at 11 o'clock, and cotillions usually begin at 11 after the midnight supper. Mrs. Henderson had just a cotillion, with an intermission at midnight for supper. Her beautiful ballroom was most attractive in the Christmas decorations, and the red banquet-room, where supper was served, was equally so. The favors were of silver and bronze, tied with red ribbons, and for the flower favor red roses and carnations were used.

The cotillion was unique in the choice of figures, as there were comic as well as artistic ones, and the comic figures created the greatest merriment. One was a cake walk; another a hobble-skirt figure, when the men had favors of hobble-skirt effect; a grand chain figure, two march figures, and a basket figure. Ten pieces of the Marine Band played the dance music, and Mr. George Howard and Mrs. William Marrow led. Miss Taft danced with Mr. John B. Henderson, Jr. The guests were from the bulk of the winter, the diplomatic corps, and the young married people of the dancing contingent.

They included the Countess Luise-Alexandra von Bernstorff, daughter of the German Ambassador, and her fiancé, Count Pourtales, of the German Embassy staff; Mr. Horstmann, of the embassy staff; the Assistant Secretary of State and Mrs. Chandler Hale, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Leiter, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Legare, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Legare, Mr. and Mrs. George Howard, Miss Eudora Clover, Miss Dorothy Gardner Williams, Miss Dorothy Williams, Miss Katherine Britton, Miss Krogstad, Miss Brown, Miss Sophy Johnston, Miss Martha Harrison, Mr. Ackland, the Danish Minister and Countess Moltke, Baron Hye, of the Austro-Hungarian Embassy staff; Miss Greely, the Misses Aleshire, Viscount and Viscountess de Sibour, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell, Miss Heath, Donna Beatrice Cusani, daughter of the Italian Ambassador; Mr. Centaro, of the Italian Embassy staff; Mr. and Mrs. John P. Story, Jr., Mr. de Thal, of the Russian Embassy staff; Mr. Robert Bacon, Prince Koudachoff, of the Russian Embassy staff; Mr. Innes, charge d'affaires of Great Britain; Capt. Archibald Burt, Mr. and Mrs. George Young, of the British Embassy staff; Mr. Alicia, of the Mexican Embassy staff; Baron Hardenbrock, of the German Embassy staff; the naval attaché of the Italian Embassy and Mme. Pfister, the Netherlands Minister and Mme. Loudon, Miss Helen Hyde, Mr. and Mrs. Train, Miss Katherine Jennings, Miss Gladys Hinckley, Mr. Thomas Hinckley, Mr. van Weede and Mr. de Beaufort, of the Netherlands Legation staff; Miss Newberry, the Misses Murray, and Miss Nancy Neff, Miss Roberta Ames, Mr. Albert Clifford Barney's protegee, danced between figures. Miss Ames' first number was that of a butterfly, given in a Greek costume. The second, a stately minuet, given in colonial costume, the gown of ivory satin, richly embroidered, and the cloak a royal purple velvet, embroidered in pink roses and gold sequins.

Mrs. Sherman, wife of Vice President Sherman, went to Utica yesterday for the Christmas holidays, and will return to Washington, December 31, and upon her return will be accompanied by her sons and their families, who will be the guests of the Vice President, and Mrs. Sherman until after New Year's. Mr. and Mrs. Brewer Herkimer and Miss Hawk, of New York, will also visit Mr. and Mrs. Sherman during the holidays.

Former Representative and Mrs. Henry Kirke Porter, of Pittsburg, entertained at dinner last night in honor of Mr. Justice and Mrs. Hughes.

Mrs. Arthur Murray, wife of Gen. Murray, U. S. A., was hostess at a luncheon yesterday in honor of Miss Carol Newberry, daughter of the former Secretary of the Navy, who is visiting the Misses Murray. The other guests were Miss Hildegarde Nagel, daughter of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor; Miss Jeanette Allen, Miss Mildred Grebley, Miss Helen Downing, Miss Ruth Parker, Miss Marguerite Barbour, Miss Marjorie Aleshire, Miss Ethel MacMurray, Miss Evelyn Chew, Miss Sadie Murray, and Miss Carolyn Murray. The table decorations were of ferns and yellow and white roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron M. Parker entertained at dinner last evening for their debutante daughter, Miss Ruth Parker, who was introduced to society at a tea Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Edmund Dornier Rheem returned to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence B. Rheem, yesterday, to spend

Mrs. Preston Gibson, who spent the last few days in New York, will return to Washington to-day.

Miss Jessie Krogstad was hostess at a tea yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock for young people in honor of Miss Doris Haywood. Miss Katherine Brown and Miss Catherine Britton assisted at the tea table.

Mrs. Williams Mathewson, nee Stickney, entertained at a small tea yesterday afternoon in honor of her house guest, Mrs. Richard Cobb, of Boston, in her new home, 200 B street. Mr. and Mrs. Mathewson are a bride and bridegroom of last September.

Mrs. C. W. Robertson and her mother, Mrs. Walter D. Wyvill, were hostess at a large luncheon yesterday for a company of young people in honor of Miss Louise Robertson. The luncheon was given at Rauscher's, and thirty young people were asked to meet the debutante. The table decorations, consisted of mounds of Killarney roses and pink shaded candelabra. Among the guests were Miss Dorothy Gatewood, Miss Hazel Cox, Miss Ruth Bliss, Miss Natalie Briggs, Miss Adeline Culp, Miss Ruth Noyes, Miss Elizabeth Noyes, Miss Margaret Knight, Miss Edith Grace, Miss Hanna Taylor, Miss Elizabeth Matile, Miss Nancy Gordon Jones, Miss Frances Miller, Miss Marie Ray, Miss Marion Edmonstone, King, Miss Julia Heel, Miss Lucinda Carpenter, Pennabaker, Miss Mildred Fearn, Miss Dorothy Dent, Miss Ida Norment Smith, Miss Ellen Lemly, Miss Edith Fry, Miss Lenora Lenham, Miss Marie Carlo, Miss Christina Curry, Miss Margaret Struther Smith, Miss Dunn, Miss Mildred Duvall, Miss Stella Carusi, Miss Elizabeth Gaines, of Warrenton, Va., cousin of the debutante; Miss Kelly Robertson, of Baltimore; Miss Bortley, of Baltimore, and Miss Nellie Acker.

Mrs. J. B. Aleshire, wife of Brig. Gen. Aleshire, U. S. A., will be at home Saturdays in January and February.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Belmont arrived in Washington last evening from New York, where they arrived Tuesday on the America, after an extended sojourn abroad.

Charles D. Walcott, Jr., arrived yesterday from New Haven, Conn., where he is a student at Yale, to spend the holidays with his parents, the Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution and Mrs. Charles D. Walcott, at the Brighton, where they have taken apartments for the winter.

The Misses Portner, of New Hampshire avenue, will entertain at a tea this afternoon for the Princeton men, just before the concert.

Mrs. Wallace Neff entertained at a large tea yesterday at 5 o'clock at the Connecticut, to introduce her daughter, Miss Nancy Neff, to society. Miss Neff has been out for the past two years in European society, but has returned only recently with her parents from an extended sojourn abroad. Mrs. Thomas T. Gaff assisted Mrs. Neff in receiving the

ALUMNI DAY PLANS

Old "Grads" of High School Will Get Together.

FORMER STUDENTS INVITED

Entertainments Arranged by Associations for Next Wednesday Night at Various Buildings, When Dancing Will Feature Programmes. Business Pupils Plan Gala Night.

"Alumni Day" will be celebrated in the high schools next Wednesday night when old "grads" and former students will hold a general Christmas reunion.

Entertainments are being arranged by the various alumni associations and the night is expected to be a gala event. While the alumni will be first and foremost, many of the present pupils will take part in the dancing which will follow the entertainments.

At Western High School a meeting of the Alumni Association, which is now in its second year, will be held, when matters of importance will be disposed of. The alumni have arranged a short entertainment following the business meeting which will consist of a series of sketches and musical numbers by the members. After the performance every one will adjourn to the gymnasium, where dancing will be held until midnight.

Eastern Plans Supper.

Eastern High School has arranged an elaborate programme. There will be a supper for the alumni and every one is expected to respond to toasts. Supper will be followed by a musical programme and a dance in the drill hall. The association announces that all former students are invited to attend the entertainment and join the association.

Central High School will also celebrate with speeches and music and a supper in the assembly hall.

At McKinley Manual Training School and Business High School, the latter having the strongest alumni association in the city, similar celebrations will be held. It is expected that the Business High School pupils will outdo themselves in their efforts this year to make Alumni Day the biggest event in the association.

TIGERS HERE TO-NIGHT.

Princeton Clubs to Give Concert at New Willard.

Princeton's musical clubs, which arrive at noon to-day for their concert at the New Willard to-night, have prepared an unusually varied programme of songs, banjo, and mandolin selections, as well as comic numbers, with clog dancing and other embellishments.

After the concert, a dance will be tendered by the Princeton Alumni Association of the District.

Beginning with some campus melodies, the programme consists of many numbers which college musical clubs have never before offered. J. H. Drummond, '11, and L. T. Getty, '11, who will be remembered in connection with the Triangle Club's performance here last spring, have conspicuous parts in to-night's concert.

The clubs comprise fifty-two men. They travel in private cars, and from Washington go to Wilmington, N. C.; Augusta, Ga.; Atlanta, Ga.; Jacksonville, Fla.; Savannah, Ga.; Charleston, S. C.; and Richmond, Va., returning to Princeton just before the holiday recess is over.

BAND CONCERT.

By the United States Soldiers' Home Band, John S. M. Zimmerman, director, at Stanley Hall to-morrow afternoon, beginning at 2:30 o'clock. Programme:
Overture, "Paraphrase T.".....Suppe
The sextet from "Lucia".....Donizetti
(Messrs. Wallach, Leguere, Glone, Fennell, Spoo, and Madella)
Selection, "Don Cesar de Bazan".....Mascagni
Characteristic, "Rhapsodie Danse".....Borstein
Waltz suite, "Shadow Land".....Rollman
"The Star Spangled Banner."

Arrange for Court-martial.

Formal orders for the court-martial of Maj. Henry C. Davis, U. S. M. C., former commanding officer of the marine guard at Guam, were made public at the Navy Department yesterday. The court-martial will convene at the navy yard at Philadelphia on January 4 next.
